To Whom It May Concern

Generally, everything I put down in writing in this reply depicts a SHORT SEENergy, or statement; occasionally additional information has been left out because I do not want to write an essay.

Frequently used acronyms in this reply and writing norms, or standards, are explained on the next page – page two(2).

On pages three(3) to five(5), I have enclosed a copy of your letter.

The document has nineteen(19) pages including Enclosures.

It needs turning brainy SEENergy into written information that is educationally understandable to the readers of Earthonaut Franz's reply - Cosmic Evolution as Earthonaut Franz evolving the English language.
